*Y*our personal portfolio of assets and property require a personalized insurance program — one with a high level of service and confidentiality. Our Personal Lines Group can analyze your current exposure to risk by examining your existing insurance policies, evaluating your loss prevention strategy, and assessing your ability to facilitate claims and potential settlements. Then, if necessary, we'll arrange for coverage with our highly-rated insurance partners — companies who are leading innovators in the insurance industry.

A wide range of products and specialized services are available and can include residential appraisals, worldwide coverage, art collection management, and international risk protection.
